

THE BLUEFIN TUNA (THUNNUS THYNNUS L.) FISHERY IN NORWEGIAN COASTAL WATERS IN 1985

S. Myklevoll
Institute of Marine Research
P. O. Box 1870, Bergen, Nordness, Norway

A few small schools of bluefin tuna were observed on the fishing grounds off Norway's west coast. No catch. Bad weather may be the reason for this disastrous result, but there also seemd to be lees fish migrating to our waters this year than in the last few years.